

UNIVERSITÄT
BAYREUTH

FAMILIE IN DER HOCHSCHULE

The University of Bayreuth is a research-oriented university with internationally competitive, interdisciplinary focus areas in research and teaching. The Faculty of Law, Business & Economics at the University of Bayreuth is currently seeking to appoint a at salary grade W3 to commence as soon as possible. This is a permanent civil service position.

The successful applicant will represent public law in its entire breadth in research and teaching. Applicants must have a proven record in constitutional and administrative law and a research profile that fits in with the economic law orientation of the faculty and complements the existing expertise in terms of subject matter. In particular, a research interest in questions of sustainability or social law is desirable.

The aim is to attract a scholar who, due to his / her qualifications and research orientation, can contribute to the networking of law and economics, and who will participate in joint research projects of law and economics. Active participation in university self-administration is required.

A commitment to teaching, including examination preparation and the LL.B. programmes of the faculty, as well as active participation in the supplementary programme in environmental law and the main legal areas offered, is expected. A willingness and ability to teach courses in a foreign language (e.g. English, French, or Spanish) are expected.

The general administrative requirements for hiring professors at universities in Bavaria apply. A complete description of the vacancy can be found at www.uni-bayreuth.de/en.

Applications (CV including a list of publications, list of courses taught, experience in obtaining external funding, as well as copies of certificates and diplomas) are to be addressed to the Dean of the Faculty of Law, Business & Economics, Prof. Dr. Michael Grünberger, LL.M., and submitted via <https://uni-bayreuth.berufungsportal.de> by 31 January 2023. Applicants are welcome to direct questions and requests for further information to Prof. Dr. Eva Lohse at eva.lohse@uni-bayreuth.de. Application documents will be deleted in accordance with data protection law following the conclusion of the appointment process.
